Section 1. Customer Due Diligence Requirements

In line with the current Anti-Money Laundering Regulations, Interpolitan Money has a legal obligation to verify the identity and permanent address of all new customers. In order to fulfil that obligation, all applicants must submit the following documents specified below. In addition, you may be required to do a liveness test for extra verification.

You are required to submit two different documents, which must be either originals or appropriately certified copies (see below). One document from part 1 and one document from part 2.

1: PROOF OF NAME AND DATE OF BIRTH

Please provide one of the following documents to prove your identity.

The name on the documents must match the name on the application form.

- Certified copy of unexpired passport clearly showing its number and country of issue, your photograph, name, date of birth, signature (which must agree with the details on the application) and its expiry date.
- Certified copy of unexpired National Identity Card or Driver's Licence clearly showing its number and country of issue, your photograph, name, date of birth and signature (which must agree with the details on the application) and its expiry date. Where the ID card does not bear a signature, the copy of the ID card must be signed by the Applicant in the presence of the certifier.

2: PROOF OF RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

Please provide one of the following documents to prove your principal residential address.

The name and address on the documents must match the name and address on the application form.

- An original or certified copy of a bank statement. This must not be older than three months from date of receipt.
- An original or certified copy of a utility bill, such as gas, water, council tax, electricity, telephone (mobile phone bills are not acceptable). This must not be older than three months from date of receipt.

CERTIFICATION OF PERSONAL DOCUMENTS

For certifications to be effective the certifier must be subject to professional rules of conduct. The certifier must be a person of reputable standing who is independent of the applicant and who has no family connection with applicant wishing to open the account.

A suitable certifier must clearly certify that:

- they have seen the original documentation which verifies identity and/or residential address;
- the copy of the document (which they certify) is a complete and accurate copy of that original; and
- where the documentation is to be used to verify the identity of an individual and contains a photograph, the photograph contained in the document certified, bears a true likeness to the individual requesting certification.

The certifier must also sign and date the copy document including their printed name, and provide adequate information so that they may be contacted in the event of a query.

Printed name of certifier:

Signature of certifier:

Address of certifier:

.....

Qualification/professional body of certifier:

Date:

The following is a list of examples of suitable certifiers:

- a member of the judiciary, senior civil servant, serving police or customs officer
- an officer of the embassy, consulate or high commission of the country or territory of issue of documentary evidence of identity
- a lawyer in practice or notary public
- an actuary or accountant who is a member of a recognised professional body
- a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators or equivalent
- a director or officer of a regulated financial services business or a regulated financial services business itself

As noted above, however, the certifier must be subject to professional rules of conduct. Interpolitan Money reserves the right to request alternative or additional evidence of identity.
